Clubs Hostesses

All Local Women Invited to Tea

Women of the Torrance area, those who have lived here for sometime and those who are new to the vicinity, are invited by the Torrance Woman's club and the Torrance Junior Woman's club to attend an open house and tea at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. on July 27.

The purpose of this mid-summer social event, which had its beginning last year, is to acquaint all women with the activities and purposes of these two women's clubs.

Guests will be greeted by Mrs. Roy Apsey, president, and members of her board.

Mrs. B. W. Roberts, new membership chairman and Mrs. Jack Phillips, co-chairman, are in charge of the affair. They are being assisted by Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, newly-elected president of the Torrance Junior Woman's club.

Mrs. Leonard Stamps is supervising the program. She will call upon chairmen of the various sections of the club to explain the functions and purposes of each group. The speakers will also outline plans for the coming club year.

On display will be the press books and awards won by the Torrance clubs in district and state competitions.

Tea table decorations will be done by Mrs. Parke Montague and Mrs. Victor Benstead.

Any woman interested in club work is cordially invited to attend the open house and tea.

Adele Curtis Will Teach In Bangkok

Miss Adele Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curtis, 1321 Engracia Ave., will teach next year at the International School in Bangkok, Thailand. Miss Curtis arrived home last Saturday for a visit with her parents before going to Bangkok.

She has been teaching for the past two years in Santa Clara, having graduated from UC at Santa Barbara. She received her early education in Torrance.

Accompanying Miss Curtis on the trip to Thailand will be another teacher, Miss Janet Kugler of Manhattan, Kansas, who has also been teaching in Santa Clara.

Miss Kugler will teach the 7th and 8th grades and Miss Curtis will teach primary.

The teachers will go by plane stopping for two days in Hawaii and three days in Hong Kong.

Houseguests

Here for a ten days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fay Parks, 2530 Eldorado are Mrs. Parks' sister, Mrs. M. D. Butler of Tonopah, Nev., and Mrs. Butler's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Butler and daughter of Las Vegas.

Gamma Phi Annual Party at Greek Theater

Gamma Phi Betas in the Los Angeles and surrounding areas are enthusiastically planning their sixth annual Greek Theater Benefit for the nursery of the Good Samaritan Hospital. This year they are happy to present the premiere of Carol Channing, in the delightful musical comedy "Show Business," an intimate musical revue with Les Qual's Judis, Wally Griffin and music, lyrics and sketches by Charles Gaynor.

Gamma Phi Betas are extending invitations to their friends and neighbors to join them in attending their benefit for the Good Samaritan Hospital. The proceeds from this event will be used to purchase an Isotope for the hospital nursery. As in past years, some item of equipment is purchased for the nursery as a continuing part of the Gamma Phi Beta benefit program.

Heading the benefit committee this year is Mrs. Arch Dawson of Pasadena, also Mrs. Walter Drew of Long Beach. Among those assisting the chairmen is Mrs. Robert Hamer of Redondo Beach.

Again this year, many Gamma Phis and their friends are gathering early to enjoy picnic suppers on the greenward surrounding the Greek theater in Griffith Park, prior to the gala

YOUR PROBLEMS by Ann Landers

"Marriage Is Forever ..."

Dear Ann Landers: You frequently say in your column that a married woman need not put up with a man she no longer cares for. You phrase it this way: "Your husband has to support your child or go to jail."

By such advice you give the impression that when a wife gets bored, she can throw her husband out and collect support money. In other words, you encourage divorce as "the easy way out."

In case you don't know it, Ann Landers, there are already too many man-hungry divorcees on the loose. You don't help the situation by painting glowing pictures of the split home. You do more harm than good and I wish you'd button your lip on this subject. — A FOUR YEAR OBSERVER

Dear Observer: Anyone who has read this column for four years should know where I stand on divorce. If you can show me a single column that I wrote which advocates divorce I will buy you a new car. (Your choice.)

I do not believe that a woman should live with a man who abuses her and the children or beats her regularly, like a gong. In such cases, I recommend separate roofs and child support. This is not the same as divorce. In my book, marriage is forever.

Dear Ann I grew up with a girl I will call Wendy. To this day we are the dearest of friends. Our mothers were very close for many years.

Recently Wendy's mother said to me, "I never see your mother any more. I call on her but she doesn't call on me. I feel bad about losing her friendship and I wish you'd tell her."

I phoned Mom that night and told her what Wendy's mother said. This was her reply: "I can't tolerate that woman since she became a grandmother. She talks of nothing but her grandchildren."

"She doesn't give a person a chance to sit down before she hauls out dozens of pictures. Then she starts with the anecdotes. I can't stand it."

Shall I tell Wendy to pass along the word? — CHARLOTTE

Dear Charlotte: Stay out of it. Let your mother pick her own friends. Your information would not be well received by either Wendy or her mother.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a girl who just turned 13. A few
